Mohit adopts a client-centered approach, delivering pragmatic and innovative solutions for optimal results.

As an associate in the Competition/Antitrust and Foreign Investment Review group, Mohit advises clients across various industries on a range of legal issues. His expertise includes providing strategic guidance on compliance matters, pre-merger notifications, and inquiries under the Competition Act, as well as foreign investment issues under the Investment Canada Act.

Mohit also has experience in civil and regulatory litigation, including competition and securities class actions. He has advised numerous clients within the technology (including digital platforms) and media sectors on various regulatory matters. Additionally, he offers specialized advice to digital assets businesses, such as cryptocurrency exchanges, on matters before the Ontario Securities Commission.

Before joining BLG as an associate, Mohit gained valuable experience through a summer internship and articling with the firm. During law school, he completed internships at Canada's largest e-commerce company and held roles at Innovation, Science, and Economic Development Canada, as well as the University of Ottawa's Centre for Law, Technology and Society.

Fluent in Hindi, Mohit leverages his diverse background to provide comprehensive and tailored legal solutions to his clients.
