

Top 10 commercial decisions of 2023: What Canadian businesses need to know

April 02, 2024

We've examined some of the most significant commercial decisions of the last year. From a disagreement between a landlord and a commercial tenant to contract wordings and agreements by emoji, these cases serve as important guidelines and examples for businesses to take note of. Our commercial litigators stay on top of commercial cases and decisions to help you understand the impact these outcomes could have on your business.
