Lillian works directly with BLG's lawyers dealing exclusively with business immigration matters.

She assists clients with the process to allow foreign nationals to work in Canada (and be accompanied by family members, if applicable) and facilitates any required extensions of their stay in Canada.

She deals with visa processing procedures at foreign consulates and applicable immigration regulations. Lillian has worked on other Canadian immigration matters under categories including the Skilled Worker Class, Canadian Experience Class, Provincial Nominees and Family Class.

She also has prepared applications for renewal of Permanent Resident Cards and Canadian Citizenship applications.

Additionally, Lillian is experienced in the preparation and filing of Labour Market Impact Assessment Applications with Service Canada.
