

EVENT

OTC Derivatives Reform in Canada

May 14, 2019
8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. ET

Hotel Novotel Toronto Centre
45 The Esplanade Toronto, ON, Canada M5E 1W2

Carol Derk and Julie Mansi, of BLG's Derivatives Group, are participating in the 8th Annual OTC Derivatives Reform in Canada conference, where they are both presenting on the topic of Derivatives and Cybersecurities, from May 14-15, 2019.

The conference will also discuss:

- An update on the Derivatives Business Conduct Rule and the Registration Rule
- Market implications of these rules
- OSFI regulatory update
- Implementation of Regulatory margin requirements, segregation and portability rule
- Concentration, client porting and regulation
- US implementation of uncleared margin requirements
- US regulatory developments and the impact of cross-border rules on Canadian derivative market participants
- Stress testing for CCPs
- Derivative trade reporting
- IBOR transition and replacement RFR implementation
- Derivative compliance and onboarding requirements for derivative dealers

Key Contacts

Carol Derk
Senior Counsel

 Toronto

 CDerk@blg.com

 416.367.6181

Julie Mansi
Partner

 Toronto

 JMansi@blg.com

 416.367.6224