What BLG can do for U.S. businesses

Law firms tell us how important it is to work with a firm that has cross-country expertise in both the common and civil law systems in Canada, as well as being a bilingual English-French firm.

Our American clients work with us because of our vast experience with U.S. businesses operating in Canada. We provide solutions in virtually every area of law, including business, dispute resolution, taxation and intellectual property. We work with clients on mergers and acquisitions, infrastructure and public-private projects, financings, international trade law, commercial litigation and arbitration.

More precisely, our focus on the United States centres on two distinct offerings: providing advice and counsel on Canadian law to thousands of U.S. businesses that are directly or indirectly active in Canada, and providing introductions and/or referrals to our network of U.S. law firms to assist Canadian companies doing business in the United States.
