Steven's practice focuses on tax litigation and dispute resolution from the audit and objection stages to appeals before the courts. Steven has a broad range of experience working on a variety of tax, estate, and civil litigation matters.

Steven also assists on corporate tax matters and regularly advises charities and non profit organizations with respect to planning, incorporation, charitable status applications, and compliance matters.

Prior to joining BLG as an associate, Steven summered and articulated with the firm. Before pursuing a career in law, he worked as an engineer, specializing in heavy oil well completions.
