

BLG welcomes new partner to the Banking and Financial Service group

Toronto (December 5, 2022) – Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) welcomes Peter J. Sullivan to the firm as a partner in our Banking and Financial Service group in Toronto.

Peter advises a wide range of clients on domestic and cross-border financing transactions. His practice focuses on project finance and securitization structures, complex syndications and agency arrangements, debt structures, acquisition financings, asset based lending transactions and general working capital credit facilities.

Peter also serves as on a number of equity, diversity and inclusion boards and is actively involved with LGBTQA+ initiatives in his community. He was awarded a Diversity Fellow Program appointment from the American Bar Association for demonstrating leadership and commitment to diversity and inclusion with local bar associations.

“Not only is Peter an accomplished banking and finance lawyer with an established cross-industry practice, he demonstrates a strong dedication to growing firm leadership and commitment to EDI initiatives, which will be an asset to our growing national team,” says Stephen Redican, National Group Head of BLG’s Specialized Business Law.

BLG’s Banking and Financial Service group advises all of the nation’s largest banks, as well as U.S. and other foreign financial institutions and Canadian and foreign borrowers. Banks, trust companies, private and public funds, and credit unions count on BLG’s guidance for all regulatory matters – including establishing entities in Canada.
