Carlos has practised corporate/commercial law for more than 20 years, with a focus on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and other complex transactions. He has extensive international experience, having worked in London for four years and the Middle East for three years, typically advising international clients on transactions in Canada or Canadian clients expanding internationally.

Carlos acts for a number of Canadian and international public companies, as well as large privately-held entities, in various industries. He acts for both strategic purchasers and private equity investors.

Carlos provides strategic advice and regularly leads large teams of transaction lawyers and subject matter experts. He provides practical advice and expert counsel, working closely with in-house counsel, business stakeholders and other outside advisors to effectively and efficiently complete transactions.
