Hannah is articling at BLG's Toronto office for the 2024-2025 term. She previously summered at BLG and assisted lawyers with a range of tasks within the Business and Disputes practice groups.

As a law student, Hannah volunteered with Artists' Legal Advice Services, served as a peer mentor, and led the Law Film Society as an executive member. Prior to joining BLG, Hannah held marketing roles across a variety of industries (including finance, fashion and retail, and business software).

Hannah chose to work at BLG because the firm is dedicated to legal innovation and delivering work of the highest caliber, while also fostering an environment of collegiality, mutual respect, and kindness.

In her free time, Hannah can be found walking her two dogs, trying out new restaurants, or browsing Goodreads for her next read.

Education

- JD, University of Toronto, 2024
- BA, Wilfrid Laurier University, 2020

BLG | Canada's Law Firm

As the largest, truly full-service Canadian law firm, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) delivers practical legal advice for domestic and international clients across more practices and industries than any Canadian firm. With over 725 lawyers, intellectual property agents and other professionals, BLG serves the legal needs of businesses and institutions across Canada and beyond – from M&A and capital markets, to disputes, financing, and trademark & patent registration.
