As CAIO, Lisa is responsible for leading BLG's strategy on AI, which includes making strategic recommendations on AI-related business opportunities, risk mitigation, financial investments, technology implementation, education and adoption, go-to-market strategy, and data management. She serves as a valuable resource for clients seeking to benefit from the potential of AI.

In addition, Lisa chairs BLG's AI Steering Committee, which is responsible for overseeing the development and implementation of the firm's overarching AI strategy at this strategic turning point.

In her previous position as Chief Knowledge & Innovation Officer, Lisa advanced various innovation initiatives across the firm, including investments in legal technology, legal process improvement, knowledge management, legal operations, and initial ventures in AI.

BLG | Canada's Law Firm

As the largest, truly full-service Canadian law firm, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) delivers practical legal advice for domestic and international clients across more practices and industries than any Canadian firm. With over 725 lawyers, intellectual property agents and other professionals, BLG serves the legal needs of businesses and institutions across Canada and beyond – from M&A and capital markets, to disputes, financing, and trademark & patent registration.
