- In addition to being responsible for daily file management, you will assist the Firm's lawyers with directly engaging with clients, drafting pleadings, document collection and production, drafting reports, motions, settlement documents, pre-trial briefs and preparing for hearings and trials.
- You will appoint and manage surveyors and other experts for shipboard investigations

- You will liaise with Transport Canada, the Canadian Vessel Registry, the Canadian Transportation Agency, the Commission des transports du Québec and other governmental agencies
- You will support in the development of conferences, seminars and other business development activities

Key Competencies

- A minimum of 5 years' experience in a claims management role or paralegal role with a focus on transportation matters or insurance defence litigation
- Experience with Maritime Law and Federal Court procedures is an asset
- Strong knowledge and understanding of the Federal Courts Rules, Code of Civil Procedure and the litigation process
- Fluency in English and French, spoken and written
- Paralegal or Legal Assistant Diploma is an asset
- P&IQ Certificate or higher qualification is an asset

What does BLG have to offer you?

- Certification in Legal Project Management (LPM)
- Access to our market-leading mentoring program
- A talent development framework that helps you develop your desired career path
- Exceptional workplace diversity and inclusiveness programs
- A competitive compensation and benefits package

How to Apply*

We thank all applicants for their interest in this position, however, only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

Everyone at BLG is required to carry out the duties of their role while upholding the important principles of our respectful workplace policies, and treating everyone with respect, regardless of position. At BLG, valuing diversity and inclusion is key to a respectful workplace.

Effective June 27, 2022, BLG has suspended its current vaccine policy mandate. As the pandemic is not over, the safety of Firm members and the BLG community remains our top priority. Given the ever-evolving nature of the situation, we will continue to closely monitor health conditions and if necessary implement new measures to protect Firm members. While it is not a condition of employment, we would appreciate reviewing your most recent proof of vaccine if available.

BLG is committed to building and fostering a workplace that is reflective of our communities, where all firm members feel included, valued, and heard. We welcome applications from all qualified candidates but acknowledge the systemic and structural barriers that have, historically, marginalized and barred certain groups from accessing employment opportunities. As part of our commitment to removing barriers to employment, we strongly encourage applications from members of these historically marginalized groups including, but not limited to, Indigenous peoples, racialized individuals, members of the LGBTQ+ community, people with disabilities and women. Accommodations are available, upon request, in all aspects of the recruitment process.
