Sixtine is articling at our Montréal office, as part of the Labour and Employment team. She has a keen interest in disciplinary matters, encompassing both unionized and non-unionized workplaces, and in occupational health and safety.

Prior to joining BLG, Sixtine was a law student in the labour standards team of the Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CNESST).

In the course of her studies, Sixtine had the opportunity to plead a commercial litigation case before a Superior Court judge.

She was also actively involved academically as Vice-President, Events of her faculty's Labour Law Committee.
