Allison is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2023 summer term. She is focusing on Disputes and is interested in environmental law.

Allison served as a special associate editor for the McGill Journal of Sustainable Development law. She also interned with the Centre québécois du droit de l'environnement's legal clinic. Before joining BLG, she worked with the Québec Ministry of Environment and Climate Change developing policy guidelines for environmental protection and has worked for a variety of environmental non-profit organizations.

Allison chose BLG because of the friendly and community-oriented team. During the interview process, she was also impressed by the emphasis on mentorship and the ability to explore a variety of practice areas.

Allison enjoys hiking, skiing, and being outdoors. In her spare time, she likes to bake, complete jigsaw puzzles, and bullet journal. Allison also kickboxes and enjoys reading.
