

Managing IP recognizes BLG's Intellectual Property group

Toronto (July 21, 2021) – For the fourth year in a row, Justine Wiebe, a partner in Borden Ladner Gervais LLP's Intellectual Property group, is one of Managing Intellectual Property's 2021 Top 250 Women in IP. This global ranking recognizes the outstanding work of leading female IP practitioners who provide exceptional value to their clients and firms.

In addition, Managing IP named ten BLG lawyers and patent agents Patent and Trademark Stars. The publication also gave our leading IP group a Tier 1 ranking for our Patent Prosecution team, and named BLG Canada's Trademark Prosecution Firm of the Year at the Americas Awards earlier this year.

Managing IP is a go-to source for news and analysis in the world of intellectual property law. The organization has researched and ranked IP firms for the past 25 years.

BLG's Intellectual Property group is a leader in the Canadian intellectual property field, and is responsible for more than 38,000 patent applications and patents and more than 40,000 trademark applications.
