

BLG partner appointed to the Tax Court of Canada

National (Oct. 30, 2024) - Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) congratulates partner Laurie Goldbach on her appointment as a Judge of the Tax Court of Canada.

“Laurie’s dedication and expertise make her a remarkable addition to the Tax Court of Canada,” said John Murphy, BLG’s National Managing Partner and CEO. “Her contributions to tax law and her commitment to mentorship and wellness have left an impact at BLG and across the legal community. We know she will bring these same qualities to her new role as Judge.”

Laurie joined BLG’s Tax Group in 2017, quickly distinguishing herself as a leader in tax litigation. She went on to lead the national tax disputes practice and serve as Regional Group Manager of Specialized Business Law and National Leader of our Tax Disputes team.

Known for her dedication and precision, Laurie has represented clients across Canada, appearing before the Supreme Court of Canada, all levels of court in Alberta and Québec, the Federal Courts, the Tax Court of Canada, and courts in British Columbia, Saskatchewan, and Nova Scotia.

Laurie’s commitment to the profession extends beyond the courtroom. Throughout her career, she has chaired the Tax Court Bench and Bar Committee of the Canadian Bar Association, served as a Governor of the Canadian Tax Foundation, and a regular speaker at professional development programs and conferences. Laurie has been invested in mentoring students and lawyers and supporting mental health and wellness in the legal community.

We wish Laurie all the best in her new role.
