Dallas is a 2024 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Prior to attending law school, Dallas completed her Bachelor of Science from Western University and spent several years working in the hospitality industry. Dallas was a court clerk at the Supreme Court of British Columbia in Vancouver where she assisted in various hearings.

Dallas attended law school at Thompson Rivers University, where she achieved Dean's List in her first year. She was active in the Access to Justice club and volunteered as a peer mentor to first year students. In her second year, Dallas was the Chair of Operations for the TRU Society of Law Students 2023 Conference focusing on mental health in the legal profession. She also participated in the National Family Law Negotiation Moot where she utilized her oral advocacy and negotiation skills to earn first place in both the team and individual categories.

Dallas chose to work at BLG because of the firm's dedication to a collaborative and supportive work environment, centered around legal excellence. She values BLG's robust professional development program, commitment to mentorship and diverse practice areas. She looks forward to starting her legal career at BLG.

In her spare time, Dallas loves traveling, trying new restaurants, and spending time outdoors.
