Grace is a Summer Student in the Toronto office for the 2023 term. She is focusing on disputes.

While in law school, Grace advocated for clients as a case worker at Community Legal Services and participated in several moots. Notably, Grace was an Oralist in the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition. Grace also spent a summer in the Office of the Honourable Senator Kim Pate as the Debwewin Summer Law intern.

Grace was drawn to BLG because of the breadth of opportunity the firm provides to students. During the interview process, Grace was impressed with the kind and genuine spirit of each lawyer she interacted with.

Outside of work, Grace enjoys baking and watching true crime documentaries.

Education

- JD, Western University, 2024 (expected)
