Mallie is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office.

While in law school, Mallie played an active role in the Windsor Law community through her involvement with the Peer Mentorship Program and in her role as Teaching Assistant for Legal Research and Writing.

Mallie has enjoyed developing her cross-border education while helping others through extra-curricular experiences in Windsor and Detroit. In her first year of law school, Mallie volunteered with Community Legal Aid at University of Windsor, facilitating access to justice for residents of Windsor. The following summer, she worked as a Research Assistant at University of Detroit Mercy School of Law, focusing on information privacy at the Canada-U.S. border. In her final year of law school, Mallie volunteered with the Third Judicial Circuit Court of Michigan and expungement clinics led by the University of Detroit Mercy.

Mallie chose BLG because of the firm's long-established reputation for exceptional client service, the national scope of its multi-disciplinary practice and its collegial environment.

In her spare time, Mallie enjoys travelling and staying active through running, cycling and yoga.
